Hey darlinyou paint a pretty picturethe sun is clouded(yeah yeah)but we'll find our way homeyes we'll find our way homecasting shadows on the pavement, dancing toe to toeis this all you areis this all you hope to be?oh no, it's just all that i knowis it enough, are you happy, do you need more?you had my heart, what more could you wantdon't you care, don't you care enough to let me goyou know that it meant everything, now everything feels far too wronglittle girl, listen wellbut you must promise that you'll never, ever telli speak like fireit burns your earsbut who will whipe away your tears?from secrets to lyingto honesty through all this mess i held you close.from secrets to lyingto honesty through all this mess i held you close.but we'll find our way homeyes we'll find our way homecasting shadows on the pavement, dancing toe to toeis this all you areis this all you hope to be?oh no, it's just all that i knowis it enough, are you happy, do you need more?you had my heart, what more could you wantdon't you care, don't you care enough to let me goyou know that it meant everything, now everything feels far too wrongfar too wrongif only you had words to make this sadness i feel go awayif only you had words to make this sadness i feel go awayyou had my
everything, now everything feels far too wrongfar too wrong
