The air is cold over my house tonight
And not a moment too soon
How could I be the only one who's wishing for snow
This could be the best time I know for not knowing at all
My tears are frozen
My heart is so warm
This is my home
Don't tell me you're warm
Cause I can see your breath in the cold air by the light of your
I can see your breath in the cold air by the light of your car

The ground is covered
Just over night
Looking out my window
Cancel it all, sleep until 2, and drive

This could be the best time i know for not knowing at all
My tears are frozen
My heart is so warm
This is my home

You can see i'm restless waiting for the sky to fall, it's killing me
Endless nights lighted by nothing but endless sky

I can see your breath in the cold air by the light of your
I can see your breath in the cold air by the light of you
car
