I like the tone of your trumpet c'mon let's spill some paint let's raise a glass of milk to the end of another day and to the kiss that's still intangible the kids are alright just unmanageable they won't do a damn thing you say

Your voice is all detached on a radio wave breeze we have another caller with a bachelor degree talkin alien invasion is the only chance for unity well sorry to interrupt you caller but that's a physical impossibility

You'd be tossed up or washed up the narrator relates in a spartan antarctican walk for many days meet with Emperor Penguin devotion to the egg and their women are swimming from half an ocean away

Don't sound so detached this is you and me just give me your opinion before you turn to leave but your crust is just incredible the radio was edible when you said don't wipe your asses with your sleeve you're a physical impossibility
