[HOOK]

Jump start the heart, you can never fall apart
cherish life, you're a breathing work of art.
It's a constant fight, to preseve a life.
I'm a soul with a chance. Reborn this night.

[JIMOTHY!]

It's criminal, insanity, a downright tragedy
how anyone could approach life with apathy.
The air in these lungs is a gift, a blessing.
The thought of wasting it has my anger cresting.
Are you resting or stalling? looking for your calling?
So lost and the world feels just like falling through stained glass,
I heard the crash. It turns out who you need most you turn to last.
I'm feeling helpless, breathless, why is life such a hard
test?
Sometimes I feel so weightless, drowning,
screaming lost in this mess.
I'm feeling helpless, breathless, why is life such a hard
test?
Sometimes I feel so weightless, drowning,
screaming lost in this mess.

[BREWER!]

I wake up everyday, hoping for change
I don't wanna live this life the same.
Not this day or the next, I don't know what's best.
Caught up in this shit, my life's a mess.

I feel like a zombie, trapped inside this body,
and even though this is not me, i still feel my heart beat, slower and slower. I can't run away.
I can only hope that I see another day!
I'm feeling helpless, breathless, why is life such a hard
test?
Sometimes I feel so weightless, drowning,
screaming lost in this mess.

One in the chamber...
Cause the end is where...
One in the chamber...
Cause the end is where...
One in the chamber...
Cause the end is where...
One in the chamber...
Cause the end is where you make it...

[KOLGATE!]

It's amazing how reality can disperse and slip away leaving you haunted and tormented by the dreams of yesterday
in an essence all your questions unravel into decay though your vision is nearsighted life still looks so far away.
In a picture you see a smile on an empty persons face,
though the edges look decrepit the image forever
stays!
the person no longer smiling sheds a tear then slips
away.
Cast into reality, where nothing good can stay.
If I left this earth tomorrow would my angel get its wings?
Would the bird forget the beauty within the song it sings?

Would a child loose its laughter and forget a smiling face?
Would I make it up to Heaven just to fall so far from grace?
Could I end the tears on Mother Earth? Bring back love and take all the hurt? Could the world forgive for all I've done?
Would Mom forgive her oldest son? Would the waters run so deep and pure If I came back to feed the poor, or would the greed succeed the need and I'm pulled again just like a weed?

Jump start the heart, you can never fall apart
cherish life, you're a breathing work of art.
It's a constant fight, to preseve a life.
I'm a soul with a chance. Reborn this night.
