"Blow Me Down"

You can try in vain
With a mind insane
Feel no kindness only pain
Derailed thoughts like wrecked trains

You can try but you can't blow me down
You only move right through and pass me by
You can try but you can't tear me apart
You'll never get my mind you'll never get my

You have nothing inside
Hate yourself without pride
The world around destroy
Only thing you enjoy

You can try but you can't blow me down
You only move right through and pass me by
You can try but you can't tear me apart
You'll never get my mind you'll never get my heart
You'll never get my heart
You'll NEVER GET ME

I can't even believe I let you get so close to me
Won't let you blow me down only pass right through me
I'm untouchable now that I've found peace with myself and
You can't even reach me now

You can try but you can't blow me down
You only move right through and pass me by
You can try but you can't tear me apart
You'll never get my mind you'll never get my heart
You can try but you can't blow me down
You only move right through and pass me by
You can try but you can't tear me apart
You'll never get my mind you'll never get my heart
