shattered dreams, worthless years here am i incased inside a hollow shell life began then was done now i stare into a cold and empty well the many sounds that leave our ears the sights our eyes behold will open up our virgin hearts and feed our empty souls

i believe when i fall in love with you it will be forever
i believe when i fall in love this time it will be forever without despair we will share and the joys of caring will not be replaced what has been must never end and with the strength we have been erased when the truths of love are planted firm there only hard to find and the words of love i speak to you will echo in my mind
