Leave the ghosts that are holding you back; Bury them in a paper bag; put 'em down in an unmarked grave
You'll be damned when your mother finds out;
You're not the girl that she once knew now;
You're going to find, you're going to find your own way
You deserve the best, you should expect nothing less
We could live in bliss, if you just say yes
On a night like this, life can change with a kiss
If you don't second guess and you go with it

And you sing your heart out, sing your heart out
Drive them blues away
Sing your heart out, sing your heart out, you got more
to say

I got a car and some money to spend
We could run with the best of them
If you let me steal you away
Sing your heart out, sing your heart out
Drive them blues away
Sing your heart out, sing your heart out, you got more
to say

You're my motorcycle mama and I love you like no other
Meet me out by the old highwayâ€¦!

Think of me as a helping hand, nothing more nothing less than that We could sing all your hardships away
You deserve the best, you should expect nothing less
We could live in bliss, if you just say yes
On a night like this, life can change with a kiss
If you don't second guess and you go with it
And you sing your heart out, sing your heart out
Drive them blues away
Sing your heart out, sing your heart out, you got more
to say
Sing your heart out, sing your heart out, you got more
to say

You're my motorcycle mama and I love you like no other
Meet me out by the old highwayâ€™
