1st Verse (MC Epikz - Khmer):

I remember the first the day, me and you first laid,
Eyes on each other made me feel so special
Like I had a angel holding me and wouldn't let go
So as I let go my heart, the one you had from the start
The one I know you wont tare apart, or leave in the dark
Your like a spark, you seem to light up my days Everytime you smile I know there's happiness heading my way
At night I lay in bed and I stare at the stars
See the similarity in your eyes, and wonder where you are
But then I know the place you'll always be is my heart
Which you'll never ever part, since you made your mark
If I could I'd give the world only to you
Because the feelings I have are so true, so boo
Coress my life with your heart, mind, and soul
Promise me that you'll never let go, once you get a hold Cuz I wont I'm telling you this now
That I'm yours forever and I'll always be around
When your down, when you frown, bong solang da moi
(I only love one and that's you)
Rol jewit bong joi owne sabai jet so owne gom proi
