Everytime he let me down
You were always there for me
Telling me that he ain good enough for me
You were always on the phone
When I was all alone
And he was never home (no)
Should've taken your advice
But I thought it was love
And I never thought twice

Now I see that I was wrong
So I wrote this song, for you
To tell you that we belong together

[Chorus:]

Though you never thought about me this way
But I'm here to say today
That I love ya, I love you
He did me wrong,
But you were always there for me
But now I see, the only one wrong was me

How many years went by that I never realized
That you were there in front of my eyes
I never even noticed the way you looked at me

When I was getting ready to go out with him

Why did it take so long to see that I need you
Why did you take so long to open your heart
I wish that I knew now
What I didn't know then
Coz I would've been a little more smart
I'd have your heart

[Chorus:]

Though you never thought about me this way
But i'm here to say today
That I love ya, I love you
He did me wrong
But you were always there me
But now I see, the only one wrong was me

Take a chance with me
Take a chance with me
Baby
Take a chance with me
Baby take a chance with me
Coz I love you, I love you, I love you
Yes I do [ooh]
Baby coz I love you oh oh
