We are convict forever in a lonely world
We are immortal after every show

(bridge)

Our life is full of evil and pain
the joy, my dear, we'll never see but we have a secret in our hidden-place

(chorus)

Deep in our room
we haven't only skeletons
Human flesh is very good but we eat also other things
Into the closet you will hear "crunch"
We are eating fastly our lunch
We're so greedy 'cause
Evil needs candy too....
Evil needs candy too!

Unpleasant time in the night when you stay awake
In front of TV you eat so much ice cream

(bridge)

We cannot kill the people in peace
If you dissuade us with your cakes
Smell of candy is more godd than blood
"Please, throw it away!!"

(chorus)

SOLO guitars

(bridge)

We love to eat children, their stomach is full of sugaries and chocolate
Their parents niglict them and the next child will come soon!

(chorus)
