That's me who I don't know
Manipulate, I do it without control
That's me who's afraid to take responsibilities
Those which I cannot take

I really don't know what's going on
So many thoughts and not one word to describe them
all
Time moves on and on

Am I the only one who feels this way?
About the situation that you started
And if that is so, take you've love somewhere else
Because I'm leaving your ass there unwanted

I really don't know what's going on
So many thoughts and not one word to describe them
all
Time moves on and on. I love, I think I do

I won't be held down (I won't be held down)
You got me climbing walls on fucked up situations
And your biggest fear is to be left unwanted

I really don't know what's going on
So many thoughts and not one word to describe them
all
Time moves on and on. I love, I think I do

Unwanted (x8)

I won't be held down (I won't be held down)
You got me climbing walls on fucked up situations
And your biggest fear is to be left unwanted
