Just down the street from me
Nancy and her family are on top of the world.
And they never seem to be
Anything less than free.

But, oh, to live the life of a happy heart.
And oh, to be just fine right from the start.
And everything's fine from what we see.

But, what do I know?
What do I know?
We don't always feel just what we show.
What do I know?
What do I know?
That which doesn't kill just makes things grow.
Grow.

And just down the street from me,
Nancy and her family have called it quits.
Some things weren't meant to last forever.
Twenty-five years have finally come to this.
And it's the end of our life together;
But, it's only time, when you think of it.

And no one likes to lose their mind,
But I have simply lost my mind.

What inspires you,
Should entice you.
Live how you wanna be loved.

What inspires you,
Should entice you.
Live how you wanna be loved.

What inspires you,
Should entice you.
Live how you wanna be loved.

What inspires you,
Should entice you.

Live how you wanna be loved.
