Here we are at the end
Another summer has come and gone again
Here I go working on my best goodbye
Trying to remember I've got her for one more night

The ride's almost over
It's getting colder
I take one last look before I say goodbye
Before I tell her goodbye

It's the end of the summer
It's the end of what we had
I think about her every time I look back
It's the end of the promises
But I still see her in the sun
It's over now, what we had is gone
It's the end of the summer, oh yeah

Here I am
The months have gone on by
I think of us lying there
I still want her by my side

Can almost see her face
I just want those days back
Days in the sun, far from the cold
We never needed anyone

I'd trade these Novembers
Just to remember
The smell of the ocean lingered in her hair
But can you take me back there?

It's the end of the summer
It's the end of what we had
I think about her every time I look back
It's the end of the promises
But I still see her in the sun
It's over now, what we had is gone
It's the end of the summer

Goodbye to the sunlight
I'll hold on to those nights
And I'll always remember us there
Before I tell her goodbye

It's the end of the summer
It's the end of what we had
I think about her every time I look back
It's the end of the promises
But I still see her in the sun
It's over now, what we had is gone
It's the end of the summer, oh yeah
(Oh yeah!)
It's the end of the summer, yeah
It's the end of the summer, oh
Here we are
