"Come And Get It"

It is just you and me
A building rivalry
A test for all to see
So if you want it come and get it
Now that you are so close
The thing you need the most
And now we all will know

Know what I say is real
The one that bleeds for what they feel
And I'll close my eyes again
Only I am unforgiven
Throw my fists to the sky
All for this I am willing to die
And you better you better not try
Only I am unforgiven

There is some truth
In keeping close to your enemies
I have to prove
And bring you to your knees

It is just you and me
A building rivalry
A test for all to see
So if you want it come and get it
Now that you are so close
The thing you need the most
And now we all will know

Battles some won and lost
The limitations that we've crossed
And I know you'll try again
Only I am unforgiven
Find me here inside this empty ring
I have waited my whole life for just one thing

There is some truth
In keeping close to your enemies
I have to prove
And bring you to your knees

It is just you and me
A building rivalry
A test for all to see
So if you want it come and get it
Now that you are so close
The thing you need the most
And now we all will know

I will conquer all!
I, defy, divide and I will conquer
I, defy, divide and I will conquer all

It is just you and me
A building rivalry
A test for all to see
So if you want it come and get it
Now that you are so close
The thing you need the most
And now we all will know

It is just you and me
A test for all to see
So if you want it come and get it
Now that you are so close
The thing you need the most
And now we all will know

So come and get it (Repeat)
