They're drinking on the deck down at Maggie's
Margaritas
They're bumper to bumper out at the marina
They've been waiting all spring
It's a summer thing

Well the sun is getting ripe and the water's getting warmer
The days are getting longer and them shorts are getting shorter
You won't hear me complain
It's a summer thing

So grab the Cerveza
And everyone raise 'em
And let's all give thanks for today
We may not remember June through September
Drinking our troubles away
It's a summer thing

This little party cove ain't no Panama City
But the beer's ice cold and our girls are just as pretty Driving us boys insane
It's a summer thing

Well the moon is coming out and we're just getting started
We're gonna build us a fire and play some Bob Marley
And we'll all sing
It's a summer thing

So grab the Cerveza
And everyone raise 'em
And let's all give thanks for today
We may not remember June through September
Drinking our troubles away
It's a summer thing

So grab the Cerveza
And everyone raise 'em
And let's all give thanks for today

We may not remember June through September
Drinking our troubles away
But that's okay
It's a summer thing
It's a summer thing

Here's to you, here's to me
May we never disagree
Let's raise a glass to days gone by Here's to life
