Frame another picture of this night,
as I sell myself on this dream.
I'll sleep with everything I've never had.
The silence screams out your name.

The extra wheel to your speeding car,
crashing to burn.
We've come so far.
The two of us on different paths
finally meet the wrong way.

Sleepless nights,
we're all for you. (all for you)
Was it worth my time
when I spent my thoughts on you? (on you)
I need to know what you're thinking,
'cause I see you and wonder
could we be the same?
I'm lost in movement and I don't know

which side of me to show.

the extra wheel to your speeding car,
crashing to burn.
We've come so far.
the two of us on different paths
finally meet the wrong way.

I need to know what you're thinking,
[The extra wheel to your car.]
'cause I see you and wonder
could we be the same?
[Crashing to burn, we've come so far.]
I'm lost in movement and I don't know
which side of me to show.
[finally meet the wrong way.]
