The candle burns to the ground,
An iridescent glow,
There's no-one left here,
Except me and my thoughts,
Quite noises make me scared,
Whispering voices in my head,
And I hear your scream,

I'll hold on, I'll hold on,
If you look over me my guardian angel,
I'll hold on, I wont let go,
Keep me safe my darling please,

Faint pictures of you in my head,
The one that will never go away,
I go to rest my head down for a while,
But your face gives me that solemn smile,

I'll hold on, I'll hold on,
If you look over me my guardian angel,
I'll hold on, I wont let go,
Keep me safe my darling please,
I'll hold on, I'll watch the candle,
Burn and blow the smoke of you,
I'll hold on, I wont let go,
Cause you're here right now,

With me,
I can feel your voice creep up my neck
And together we will bring you back,
Bring you back,

The candles burnt to the ground,
I cannot hear a sound,
I cant keep going on,
like I never miss you,

I'll hold on, I'll hold on,
If you look over me my guardian angel,
I'll hold on, I wont let go,
Keep me safe my darling please
