I've been wasting time
just wandring around this house of joy well I ain't laughing, ain't having fun since forever on the run I've seen them coming I've seen them go silently they've walked out the door but no more of what has been but no more second violins

we're going down
I'm ready (x3)

this is for tomorrow
tomorrow has a name...

creating alibies, manufactured lies satisfaction comes from within transparent through the skin in need a graft in shine like that

we're going down
I'm ready

this is for tomorrow
tomorrow has a name...

tomorrow has a name!

happy behind frail glass wall throw a brick and watch it fall! (x8)
