So now's the time to draw the line back home
And to take a chance to make the whole thing last

Can I ask you to stay, no.

Cause now's the time to close your eyes and see what
you've got here
Cause sunny days lead you astray, just know what
you've got here.

Now's the time to close your eyes,
So now's the time to trace the line back home.
To feel at last, the love left in your past.

Can I ask you to stay, no.

Cause now's the time to close your eyes and see what
you've got here,
Cause sunny days lead you astray, just know what
you've got here.

Now's the time to close your eyes,
Cause everything changes but you.

And oh, can I ask you to stay, no,

Cause now's the time to close your eyes
And see what you've got here
Cause sunny days lead you astray.
Just know what you've got here,
And now's the time to close you're eyes and see what
you've got here
Cause sunny days lead you astray.
Just know what you've got.
