I met you at the jetti with a one track mind it was 2 in the morning and a quarter-mile wide to go before we lose control keying cars under stars setting off the alarms kinda hope we get caught cos at least we ll have something to say instead of wasting away c'mon and light me up

whoah ohh ohh ohh
but dont say that you're heading for a breakdown
whoah ohh ohh ohh
caught in the middle of a fire island freakout

In the summer we recover from inaudible streets but when the sound of the crowd is worse than the heat you know, you're gonna lose control we should've never left ocean for the second-hand thrill now we're caught red-handed and we cant leave town until until they say we will or we wont we gotta find a way to stay afloat cmon and light me up

whoah ohh ohh ohh
but dont say that you're heading for a breakdown
whoah ohh ohh ohh
caught in the middle of a fire island freakout

whoah ohh ohh ohh
dont say that you are heading for a freakout
whoah ohh ohh ohh
but dont say that you're heading for a breakdown
whoah ohh ohh ohh

whoah oh oh oh dont say that you're gonna get out tonight dont tell me that you're gonna black out the light dont you understand its just another little fire island freakout
