She waits curled up on the floor waiting for an answer Her face is flowing like champagne running like the colors of her favourite Monet one minute she's like a spring day one minute she's like a hurricane spinning around again

good cop bad cop
tell me when it's gonna stop one step forward, two back, it's over over and over
tell me if you're gonna be the
good cop bad cop
waiting for the gunshot say it's love or say that it's over
over and over

tonight I'm sleeping in my car freezing at the corner of last night in Tompkins Square Park one minute she tastes like a cheap shot one minute seems like she's all I've got face down in love

over and over
good cop bad cop
waiting for the gunshot say
over and over

your love is a prison
you've put me away for life

and I can't escape this time

and I can't escape

tell me when it's gonna stop
over and over
over and over
