I was born frustrated because our world is so complicated baby and im just trying to make it and i dont care if you fake it because i get what i want when i get to the club i get what i want when push comes to shove yeah you got it, i want it yeah you do it, you do it do it do it cos i just want to push you away but the hints that you are giving, they're making me

stay
i cant get you out of my head i cant stop this you've got something i cant resist

so now i got you baby i aint letting you go right here all day, right here all day

yeah you got it, you got it i get you i get you i get you i get you you do it do it do it

i cant stop this

you cant fight the feeling (repeat) you got something i cant resist your mama says not to hang out with guys like me your mama says that im nothing but trouble but she dont know all the dirty things that you do

but the hints that you are giving, they're making me
i cant stop this

you cant fight the feeling
