Little Faith,
Brightens the Rainy Day.
Life is difficult you can't go away.
Don't hide yourself in the corner,
you have my place to stay.

Sorrow is gonna say goodbye
Opens up,
you see the happy sunshine.

Keep going on with your dream,
Chasing tomorrow's Sunrise
The spirit can never die.

Sun will shine, my friend,
Will let you cry, my dear.
Seeing you, shed a tear
makes my world disappear.
You'll never be alone,
In darkness,
See my smile, my friend.
We are with you, holding hands.
You have got to believe,
you are my destiny.
We're meant to be your friends,
That's what a friend should be.
