I'm walking round pretty down on my luck when I saw my reflection in puddle and said to myself
'how's ot come so cold and numb in this town of mine.
There must be something in the pipeline for me just give half a chance and surely you see that Ive got more to give then someboday with no heart and soul.

Well hey, anyway, how could you possibly understand or see,
see that we,
we're poles apart in another land . but I gotta say, get if
off my chest,
what goods potential if i got no interest? at all,
anymore, none at all.

I'm walking round pretty down on myself and I'm passing the places were I used to play when I was a kid,
blink of an eye and time goes by in this town of mine.
My mother told me 'dont let them hold you back I know that its easy just to sit around having the crack' thats no good good I know I can do much more than this.

So hey, anyway, how could you possibly understand, or see,
see that we,
we're poles apart in another land . but I gotta say, get if
off my chest,
what goods potential if I got no interest? at all,
anymore, none at all.

None at all (x3)
