Well I've been wasting away looking forward to this I've been rotting inside waiting for my big time
You point the way and I'll follow your sign
I got a devil in me and it's pointing to the big time
Well I got a devil in me and he's pointing to the big time He's pointing to the big time...

Jobs to do, that involves me and you
If we get our act together we can push away the ghosts
forever
Ah, push away the ghosts forever
Ah, push away the ghosts forever

So pack your bag, book a seat on the street
You got a lopsided view and a point where your feet meet
Home sweet home, I'll never leave it alone
I got a devil in me and he's welcome in my zone
I got a devil in me and he's welcome in my zone
He's welcome in my home...

If we get our act together we can push away the ghosts
forever
Ah, push away the ghosts forever
Ah, push away the ghosts forever
Ah, push away the ghosts forever
Let's push away the ghosts forever

And now you feel that neon pumping hard like you knew you would
So push it
And now you feel that neon pumping hard like you knew you could
So push it
And now you feel that neon pumping hard like you knew you would
So push it
And now you feel that neon pumping hard like you knew you could
So push it

So push it
So push it

And I got jobs to do, that involves me and you
If we get our act together we can push away the ghosts
forever
Ah, push away the ghosts forever...
