Woooooah wooooah
woooooah wooooah
wooooooah wooooah

you see i was gettin older man, so i decided to do somethin a little smart, so i put some dough aside and i bought myself a yard, it was a little two up two down man, this was quite a nice little pad,
i scrimped and saved and pulled through with a little help off me dad.

woooooah wooooah
woooooah wooooah
wooooooah wooooah

so i was just settlin in as you do man, little party then there was a bang at the door, it was the fuck'in neighbour, he was goin "turn down your tunes or you'll end up on the floor", i said "arrgh this is well unexpected man, i aint lookin' for no fight. i'll tell you what, any other time muck-o, but not tonight!"

i said not tonight!
(just do one or be gone)
i said not tonight!
(just do one or be gone)
i said not tonight!
i said not tonight!

woooooah wooooah
woooooah wooooah
wooooooah wooooah

so he's standin in my porch man in his briefs, scratchin his....
i said i bet i find to....your missus has to lay you on your back!
and i could tell i wouldnt like this geezer from the minute that we met,

cuz he was in his garden talkin to plants like they was pets
and he was one of them man, i could tell ya this geezer he ad fuckin issues, i guarantee you his love life was all endin up in tissues!
and he was one of them man, spick and span,
house was all far too neat, and then i sin him pickin litter on a sunday off the street,
i said what the fuck?!

(just do one, or be gone)
i said what the fuck
i said what the fuck is goin' on wi you man?!
(just do one or be gone)

listen, i told him, you could just shoot!

cuz we could well meet one day mate, maybe in a pub, i'll say finish your beer off man, and you can donate that grub,
cuz remember that time wen you was in my porch askin for a fight?!
well guess what mate, it's your lucky night!

(just do one or be gone)
its your lucky night
(just do one, or be gone)
it's your lucky night!

things have changed and iv moved on,
stories told so now im done, yeah, things have changed and iv moved on,
stories told so now im done, yeah!
