"Another Day"

With your two eyes you'll see what I see Don't your move your walk right by me
Just another day in the neighbourhood
I can do no harm, I can do no good

Just another day, just another day
Just another day, just another day

Someones wispering in my ear
You better get out, you better stay clear
Just another day, just another day
Just another day, just another day

Waiting for the day to come where I don't feel like any higher
Waiting for the day to come where I don't feel like offing myself
Waiting for the day to come where you will be a bigger man
Waiting for the day to coooooome.

Now near goes there all the same
Wide eyes, bright lights, and cocaine
Just another day, just another day
Just another day, just another day

Waiting for the day to come where I don't feel like any high
Waiting for the day to come where I don't feel like
offing myself
man
Waiting for the day to coooooome.

Waiting for the day x3
Waiting for the day x3
