Hush now, baby
Soon I'll see you in my dreams
Asking nothing
Nothing's ever what it seems

Baby want the milk and honey
Ask me and you shall receive
Never seen no devil
Wear his heart upon his sleeve

Down the corner
Where the streets have turned to sand
If you do unto others
You will die by your own hand

Baby, pull me even closer
Tangled like the web she weaves
Shaking off the demons
Now they're coming after me

Don't mistake me
Ain't no ordinary man
Going to save me
From that shotgun in your hand

Covering the walls in shadow
Faster than the sound of speed
Never seen no devil
Now it's all that I can see

I see you dream
I see you dream
Can't deny
Can't deny
