"Idle and Waiting"

Play that chord one more time, you know I'm waiting.
It's the quiet that makes the song.
No, it's the absence of light that makes it.
So play that chord,

And I'll fall asleep - I will! I will!
But my heart is racing, and my mind won't shut down.

Play that chord one more time,
Cause I'm singing. We're singing.
Laughter fills the room,
And pulls us towards another night's close.

And I'll fall asleep - I will! I will!
But my heart is racing, and my mind won't shut down.

Everyone is idle and waiting.
I'm waiting. I'm waiting.
