"We Fall"

I saw you running through the fields,
Your hair was a mess, and your face was wet,
Your body was trembling.
The summer's heat made your clothes stick to your skin,
I just didn't know where to begin.
I feel like everything - It's all my fault.
I just wanted you to know the truth.

I'm tired of the silence,
It seems all too common when things are standing still.
I just can't describe what it feels like
To be on the outside looking in.
So I'm searching for that song that will make me break down,
And fall to my knees in the middle of this broken street.

It's like life and death - They're married to each other,
It's a partnership that can't be undone.
I just wish there was something I could do for you,
As we sit here - Watching the ashes as they fall.
And we fall. We fall.
