Chorus:

Vamos a tequila, senorita, bonita
I really need it now
I ain't got no tengo dinero, caballero
Say can we work it out

First time I meet her, I wanted to greet her
Nobody could've been sweeter
I was wrong should have bought a bombita
But, now she gone
I don't know where she go
Me, I'm frustated down so, and the other men miss her
I guess I surely know that, baby
Where did she gone? where the rose bush rise up
Are you wicked than bandolero
Then a-better wise up
Or we go, ash to ash, and dust onto the dust
You just big up a chest and go loco

(repeat chours)

Smile up on the face
Make the next plan
Wiggle the bottom to attract the next man
Rude boys, beware
This one's a-come fe run the things
Swing them together
Like vendetta the gun things
She lick a shot, sa, to get
She take care of dha freak
And you get the money
Cause her punani popularity
Bum, bye-bye, she make a grown man cry
She just big up her chest and go loco
Come on (rpt chorus twice)
