When I say to you that theres nothing else to do in my room and when you say to me that theres really nothing else to do then I'll get up and freakin walk around and try not to blink then I'll get out of here and say that theres nothing to do

Cuz when you tell me that we're gonna go out tonight
I dont think that everything will be alright between everybody, between everything between you and me and people that have nothing to do

I'll take a look inside that everything will be beside me and I'll wonder why everyone is trying to hide me like I'm not around and everything fell outta bounds I'm sick of all the stupid sounds that sit around and try to annoy me

Cuz when you tell me that we're gonna go out tonight
between you and me and people that have nothing to
do

Well I guess this is the end you know I cant comprehend with everything that your trying to tell me I dont think I can tolerate any more of you today this is all I have to say cuz theres nothing to do people that have nothing to do
