Little George got out his toy chest
To lay his enemies to rest
He'd use all available assets,
But his private chamber of gas.
And he had nothing to hide, he has often said,
But he just could not afford to lose his daddy's bet.
"But it was all in the name of freedom,
In the name of the garden of Eden
It was all in the name of freedom,
So relax!"

And the man in the runic uniform,
Who had a daddy and a mom,
Had imagined a world of free men
Like a Spartan chicken's den.
He could not allow the volkslied to forget
That they once wore pointed horns in golden hats.
"But it was all in the name of freedom..."
In the name of the race of Sweden
"It was all in the name of freedom,
So relax!"

Yes there's a silly golden bathrobe
Enveloped around some pope.
He will teach against the sinner,
Against the pornographic winners.
He will poison you with sermons 'til you ask.
For the antidote he'll hang behind your mask.
"But it's all in the name of salvation..."
In the name of your donation
"It's all in the name of salvation,
So relax!"

Yes allah has brought Muhammad.
"Finally" the harvard man, said.
"He will save us from our women
And from the jewish deadly tumor.
But don't you celebrate, my son, not so fast
This may just have to be that deadly task
But it's all in the name of salvation..."
And of psychic masturbation

â€œIt's all in the name of salvation,
So relax!â€

And the fat man has finally mastered
The mathematics of disaster.
Now, he'll look just like a martyr
And he acts just like a father.
But the day will come when he will knock upon your room
Saying: "this belongs to me, you'll have to leave it soon.â€
â€œBut it's all in the name of the economy,
And of stable matrimony
It's all in the name of the economy
So relax!â€

Yes the painter has been outnumbered
By the critics he has plundered,
His payola funds depleted
By the banker he has greeted.
He says "I can't compete with the photographic tools"
So he paints a thousand portraits without a muse
â€œBut it's all in the name of the economy...â€
And of luxuries and gastronomy
â€œ...Yeah, it's all in the name of the economy
So relax!â€
