"This Golden Voyage"

Call to sunlight for a night sky song-
Rhymes of beauty to help carry us along
Thru a time of knowing that won't soon be gone.

Daydreams
Steer our course thru soul-swept mystic seas,
And o'er soundscapes
With truths of sages

To the sun;
This golden voyage under way.

Celestial windows with angeli-magic views,
Rainbow reveries of multi-coloured hues
Will stretch on into infinity to fly.

Heretofore,
The key to unlock ever-open, closing doors
Wrought by your spirit guide.

A storm brews, burning on a blood-red horizon.
Galaxies unfold beyond,
Sailing into eternal next millenniums,
Three captains at the helm.

Songlight
Illuminates even the darkest night.
