Dearly departed eyes know me
See me from the other side so free
In the back of my mind you make me
Wanna be a better man
I wonder what you see in me only
A young 23 to be lonely
Living out your memory makes me
Wanna be a better man

Someday in my future I'll see you
In places I ain't never been
Places I ain't never been
Yeah it'll take some time getting used to

Dearly forever skies show me
How to live a better life hold me
Gazing in your starry night makes me
Wanna be a better man
I wonder what I should achieve boldly
Living after you released coldly
With a stone to tell yea I knew you well
You made me into a man

Someday in my future I'll see you
In places I ain't never been
Places I ain't never been
Yeah it'll take some time getting used to

I take a look up at the grey I'm watching what I say

I'm locking up my plans and options for my days
I got to be the man I want to be the way
I ought to be is how you'd want me to behave so hey
I put my pants on one leg at a time
And in the back of my mind you're watching me from behind
Each moment I take a sip or step or cross a line I'm knowing we're gonna talk I'm just waiting for the time

Dearly departed eyes know me
See me from the other side so free

In the back of my mind you make me
Wanna be a better man
I wonder what you see in me only
A young 23 to be lonely
Living out your memory makes me
Wanna be a better man

Someday in my future I'll see you
In places I ain't never been
Places I ain't never been
Yeah it'll take some time getting used to

Being there in places I ain't never been
Places I ain't never been
But I'll be with you
