Sleeping through the day
wake up with champagne roll me a (ay)
I told my mother I would quit
what can I say
I'm still breathing
falling in love every evening
so we just gonna stay
teenage dreamers born this way I told my mother I'd grow up
what can I say
I'm still breathing

now I'm feeling young I'm staying out late like its never been done I'm using my heart like I got nothing to lose like I've been handed the keys to every door that I choose we throw off our clothes and we jump in the pool and every emotion is feeling like new and we're on the posters and we're on the news but we wouldn't care if they never knew our skin is burning we're up on the roof we've been here for days and I can't find my shoes I can't find my cell and I can't find my girl and I wouldn't wanna be anywhere in the world

wake up with champagne roll me a (ay)
I told my mother I would quit
what can I say
I'm still breathing
what can I say
I'm still breathing

now I'm feeling high we're driving fast now like we'll never die pulling me close now her pupils are wide and I see the future when I look in the sky its giving me goosebumps the permanent kind our bellies are warm now I think I can fly we sit on the beach and she looks in my eyes tells me I'm crazy and I tell her she's right I feel amazing we're pulling the blinds pouring the champagne and painting the night listening loud now to diamonds and pearls

and I wouldn't wanna be anywhere in the world

wake up with champagne roll me a (ay)
I told my mother I would quit
I'm still breathing
what can I say
I'm still breathing

I don't wanna sleep tonight
open your eyes open wide watch the city come to life

wake up with champagne roll me a (ay)
I told my mother I would quit
what can I say
I'm still breathing
I'm still breathing
falling in love every evening.
