when we climbed to the peak we planted a flag
but the moment we had
I felt bad
and then night came so we got in our sleeping bags when someone told a story about something dead and gory

there was heat
from the fire
but i still froze
when i saw the ghost

there was heat
from the fire
but i still froze
when i saw the ghost

i told the gang
we weren't welcome
the ghost made that clear so we stepped back
but it was drawing near and it lunged for our throats so we packed our things, made tracks undid our footprints even furled our flag

and we were gone
but what was on
the mountain top?

and we were gone
but what was on
the mountain top?

Sweet nothing
I made it up
So we'd make it down
with no territorial claim
