Yeah

Yeah

Take my love, I don't need it
Take my mouth, I can't breathe
Take my bones, organs too
All I ever wanted was to love you

Where did love go, where did love go
It's there, it's there, somewhere
Way out there
Where did love go, where did love go
Oh I know it's gone, elsewhere

(this must be love)
Oh why am I crying for
(this must be love)
Oh what am I fighting for
(this must be love)
Then bring me a sunny day
(this must be love)
Why'd it have to feel like this, feel like this

yeah-eh

Take my lung, I got two
Take my brain, memories too
Take my legs, walk away
All I ever wanted was you to stay

Where did love go, where did love go
It's there, it's there, somewhere
Way out there
Where did love go where did love go
Oh I know it's gone, elsewhere

(this must be love)
Or why am i crying for
(this must be love)
Or what am i fighting for
(this must be love)

Then bring me a sunny day
(this must be love)
Why'd it have to feel like this, feel like this

Oh I love you
(this must be love)
I love you, I love you
Oh why am I crying for
(this must be love)
I love you, I love you
Oh what am I dying for
Oh I love you
(this must be love)
I love you, I love you
I love you, I love you
(this must be love)
I love you, I love you
I love you, I love you
