Be Myself Again :

i feel so way by down and out and i know that soon my time is running out i've been so high and i've been so low and all the time i've was movin' too slow but i guess that time takes a friend to be yourself again
to be myself again
to be myself again
to be myself again

i don't need your books to know how to read while this mind of mine is just filled up with speed you told me this now you're telling me that well, did i ever tell you how to act cause you know it's time, time to pretend to
to be yourself again
and i'll be myself again
be myself again
again
