jump in, it's only fire the pilot's set to broil my nimble cook
it's useless flying kites it only works if the wind is right and I've got a question for my dragonfly how to navigate through a perilous tide without a safe or sound device save only I
save, save only I

so sayeth the law of shadow no night is so long to stop day from following so long as I reach the air I'll finally feel my colours change jump in wisdom's with the pearls the little shiny eyes the oysters took deception, dragonfly the underaged plan to drink the night it's not so wonderful feeling light's something just in the way call up the thirty winds 'till a persian rug flies without a sage for sound advice who's there?

save, save only I

no night is so long to stop day from following
I'll finally feel my colours change
(2x)

finally feel my colours change oh, I'm willing my dragonfly no need to slice the dark it's just as good, I've found so jump in while the flame is bright and if you jump when the wind is right think of this not as fire, but lights of coming dawn coming dawn, coming dawn fall up into the wind if she offers a ride with no one else to turn the tide

save only I
save, save only I

no night is so long to stop day from following
(2x)

finally feel my colours change (3x)
