I thought I knew what love could do
Long before I lost my head to you
I had shut out the world
'Cause I couldn't
Bear another broken heart
Right from the start you proved me wrong
You switched off off and turned me on
When I saw your face I couldn't help myself
Forgot the fear of being let down again

I do I do I do I do
Confess I'm hopelessly in love with you

And the neighbours might complain
As we head for bed again
'Cause in this room
Starts the new baby boom

And the neighbours might complain
As we head for bed again
'Cause in this room
Starts the new baby boom

A wild mood swing from high to blue
Anywhere you want I gladly go
I've never felt anything like this
I'm so proud I dared to let you in
You are my newfound favorite dope
A shimmering spark of light and hope

I know this is crazy but I love it
I know this is crazy but I love it

I do I do I do I do
Confess I'm hopelessly in love with you

And the neighbours might complain
As we head for bed again
'Cause in this room
Starts the new baby boom

And the neighbours might complain
As we head for bed again
'Cause in this room
Starts the new baby boom

I know this is crazy
I know this is crazy
I know this is crazy

But I love it
I love it

And the neighbours might complain
As we head for bed again
'Cause in this room
Starts the new baby boom

And the neighbours might complain
'Cause in this room

New baby boom
