"The Message"

I've been waiting for a message
A plug to fit my hole
I've been trawling through the darkness
For a light to fill my soul

There's a hole in my skin
Where the world can get in
There's a hole in my soul
Where your message will fit in

I've been waiting for a message
Someone to write my book of truth
If it tells me I've been rescued
I won't require proof

There's a hole in my skin
Where the world can get in
There's a hole in my soul
Where your message will fit in
[x2]

I've been waiting for a message
A plug to fit my hole
I've been trawling through the darkness
For a light to fill my soul

There's a hole in my skin
Where the world can get in
There's a hole in my soul
Where your message will fit in
[x6]
