

Unseen, The "Coincidence Or Consequence"

you have a job but you can't afford the rent why is life always just dollars and cents?
if you can't get a job then you can't get a home
the vicious cycle spawns and turns your soul to bone kill, kill, die, die, death, death, suicide

why do you think those rates are so high?
do you think it's just a coincidence that the black male is the highest statistic trapped on welfare?

landlord system, life for rent capitalism doesn't make any sense don't join the system, it's suicide!
coincidence or consequence: you decide!

kill, kill, die, die, death, death, suicide

welfare is warfare
