(Intro Piano/Organ)

(Verse 1)

Driving to the city that we can go.
Me and my friends are having fun tonight.
If we can walk down the streetlights sky.
Where I can't see the signs from the walls tonight.
My heart is beating as my head spins around the stars.
If we can dance around the street tonight.

(Chorus)

Stars so bright you shining up the light, oh where do we have to go?
Or where do we have to stay from here. Stars so bright you shining up her eyes, so she will love me so. Oh she will runaway from me tonight.
Crossroad that we use to know oh everyone will carry on as we start to sing and dance tonight.

(Piano solo)

(Verse 2)

Drinking and hanging around the park tonight.
When we laughed and smile as the moon goes by from ahead.
And even if music rising up, the city lights glows. Oh its such a beautiful night i love and sing.

(Repeat to chorus)

(Bridge chorus)

You see the stars shines on everyone, as everyone
dance the night away.
So we can sing, we can sing out loud tonight.

You see the stars shines on everyone, as everyone
dance the night away.
So we can sing, we can sing out loud tonight.

You see the stars shines on everyone, as everyone
dance the night away.
I promise you that we can live and run this night.

(Atro chorus)

Stars so bright you shining up the light, oh where do we have to go?
Or where do we have to stay from here. Crossroad that we use to know oh everyone will carry on as we start to sing and dance tonight.
