(Violin melody intro.)

Angels from above that flies around the heaven sky,
They cheer for the king who saved the world.

(Music instrument playing along with violin melody.)

Marching bands they played the drums through the city,
And I know the day when he died. Jerusalem temple will pray for his life, and remember how he lived.

Chorus:

And how he died for me, and how he died for you.
And see the wings of the light, that shines from the heart.
To see things unfold, to cry the blood away.
To pray for hope, and see the love grows.
And I will go, to see the cross.
I see the cross, the colors of every light.

(Violin melody with guitar soloist along with Hallelujah chorus.)

Chorus 2: Hallelujah!

Walking down the burning hills that bleeds me, as fire burns down my home. Holy soldiers marching on and on to, the holy city above. I sit here like a puppet without strings,
a temptation stops when god calls me home.

(Repeat back to chorus.)

Chorus 2:
Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah.

Chorus:

And how he died for me, and how he died for you.
And see the wings of the light, that shines from the heart.

To see things unfold, to cry the blood away.
To pray for hope, and see the love grows.
And I will go, to see the cross.
I see the cross, the colors of every light.

(Music ends.)
