I close my eyes and I
I slip away
Away from the pain
You throw at me everyday
I feel so good now
Just killing time
But who knows what you'll find
When you're just killing time

So much time with nothign left to say
I wish that this
Would just go away
But I just sit here
And let my time slip away
What should I do now that I've lost my way

Now that I'm alone
I have all the time I need
Noone else is here
Noone else can see me bleed
So I'll take my time
Run from my fears
Let myself waste away
And never let you see me disappear

So much time with nothing left to say
I wish that this
Would just fade away
But I just sit here
And let my time slip away
What should I do now
I cant find my way

As I open my eyes
I see the world and realize
Time is a thing quite often wasted
Evidence of all the memories faded
Time so often passes us by
Leaves no answers or reasons for why

... We live our lives always losing time

Before we know it
We are ready to die
