Tucked in tight
In my bed of sin
I dreamed I was alive
If only to the pass the time
Till I awoke,
And was raped of this fantasy named Human
Just another dream lost
Another lie took in
Another day to waste away
Just another chance
Just another way
For you to tighten your grasp
On my fading sanity

You make me see the evil that men do
And I cry for my lost innocence
Everything was lost because of you
And I scream for the childhood never had
And this silent pain is my lullaby

Firmly gripped
And firmly tossed aside
Was I ever real to you?
Or was I the big mistake
That made everything so hard
You always talked about your dreams of a perfect life
It seems I not even able yet to speak
Stole those dreams from you
And so I bear this guilt
For a crime I do not know
With every breath I take
Everywhere I go
I wish i could heal these scars inside
But I guess I'm just a demon
Not worthy of my life

You make me see the evil that men do
And I cry for my lost innocence
Everything was lost because of you
And I scream for the childhood never had
And this silent pain is my lullaby

Hidden away from the rest of the world
I cry, So ashamed
So afraid and paralyzed
Forever condemned to a life of worthless tries
Always taking one step forawrd
Just find I'm falling ten steps back
Lost In a mind thats full of pain and memories
That I never should've had
You made me see the evil that men do
And I'd give anything just to show you back
How you fucked me up so bad
And that I'll go on living in spite of you
I'll still scream for my innocence
And keep this pain as a lullaby
Untill the song is just an echo
And my breath gives out with time

... You lived your life through me
So please just tell me why
... You could never see the world
Through my crying eyes
