Take my hand and I'll show you the life that you've been missin'
All the death and all the fire that our anger's increasin'

Take my hand, I will show you that life's the same as pain
so make it end and make it slow your loss becomes my gain

Life...Ends...Now
FACE OF EVIL
Make it end

CHORUS:

Let the lightning strike
and break me into pieces
(IT ENDS)
Let myself bleed dry
I'd rather die than live this
(RIGHT NOW)
Havin' faith no more
'cause all the angels are falling
(THIS LIFE)
The man who once stood tall
Is finally down and crawling.

They've destroyed, annihilate
the peace that you've been seekin'
They gave you the darkest light, that light the will of livin'

Come to me I'll make you free
I'll give you what you want
Don't be scared, don't feel alone,
You're not the only one

Life...Ends...Now
FACE OF EVIL
Make it end

CHORUS:

Let the lightning strike
and break me into pieces
(IT ENDS)
Let myself bleed dry
I'd rather die than live this
(RIGHT NOW)
Havin' faith no more
'cause all the angels are falling
(THIS LIFE)
The man who once stood tall
Is finally down and crawling.

This is the life that you've built for me
Stop this pain right here.
The Father, The Son, and The Deadly Ghost
Save me God, I'm lost.

CHORUS:

Let the lightning strike
and break me into pieces
Let myself bleed dry
I'd rather die than live this
Havin' faith no more
'cause all the angels are falling
The man who once stood tall
Is finally down and crawling.
