THE JOKER

(Lyrics: Andre Rodriguez. Music: Uranium)

Verse:

Hiding from the sun
In shadows of fear he hides our lives
Showing a smile.
Trying to corrupt, what's already corrupted.
We were holding on and on
But what was good has now, turned bad
Why should we smile?
If we're drowning deeper now,
In a sea of lies!

In a sea of lies...!

Pre Chorus:

Something evil inside
our souls and minds.
Corruption, death and pain!

Your "truths" were lies
Our payment cries
He's a monster that,
We have made!

Chorus:

He'll show the world that there's no God
But something evil around us
He'll show the world that what's good has lost

With mouth's full of lies, that demon smiles
There is nobody to defend
He'll try to bring the world its end.

Bridge:

Throw a coin and let the chance show us the importance
And the matter of life and death...
Life that's been corrupted by the human being and Death has been brought with pain...

Show a smile or I'll put it on your face and make you realize
That every Superhero comes with a Super-villain...

Chorus:

He'll show the world that there's no God
But something evil around us
He'll show the world that what's good has lost

With mouth's full of lies, that demon smiles

There is nobody to defend
He'll try to bring the world its end.
