Nobody knows I feel this way
I know you'll always care, I know you'll always be there
Cos nobody knows I feel this way
They can't pull us apart, we're so in love

And the sound of your voice is all I need
To bring me to the night, to bring you to the night
And the sound of your voice is all I need
For you to take me away

Daylight suddenly blinds all I see and I know
I'm coming home
Daylight suddenly blinds all I see and I know
I'm coming home

Nobody knows I feel this way
I know you'll always care, I know you'll always be there
Cos nobody knows I feel this way
I only need to close my eyes
To see your face, to see your face
I only need to close my eyes
For one beautiful night

Daylight suddenly blinds all I see and I know
I'm coming home
Daylight suddenly blinds all I see and I know
I'm coming home
